Protection of Monuments:

The government has set up a special body called the Archeological Survey of India (ASI) that protects monuments and historical sites. We as citizens can also preserve and protect our monuments by:

- 1- Not scribbling on or damaging the walls.
- 2- Not spitting or throwing garbage inside or near the monument.
- 3- Reporting any damage done to the monument or its premises.

Conclusion:

A monument gives a lot of information to historians. We learn about the person who built it, the material used, the style of architecture. Monument gives us an idea about the grand life style of kings and queens of the past who lived in them. We admire the beauty of the work done by crafts people and artisans of the past. Monuments teach us about our past and need to be preserved.
